

WOMEN IN CONSULTING

A Community of Women Building Strong Businesses

Don't Go It Alone. Women In Consulting® (WIC)— a vibrant, diverse, and collaborative community — offers you a place to connect and share with other like-minded professionals. Whether you're a solo practitioner just starting out or you employ a staff of 50 or more employees and contractors, WIC is for you.

The Power of Community. WIC's approach is simple: support each other's success through community and collaboration. This includes monthly in-person meetings around the Bay Area, special topic meetings, online communities and daily interaction through email lists.

Networks and knowledge that help drive business growth

Diverse, high-caliber colleagues, many of whom serve the world's leading organizations

Insight into what works and what doesn't, bypassing the agony of trial and error

Support throughout every stage of the consulting lifecycle, from getting started to managing a mature business

Collaboration with like-minded professionals whose skills augment yours

Network and socialize with colleagues at general meetings, satellite meetings, and workshops

Whole-life support, from attorney and accountant recommendations to insurance and childcare options, to help finding a book, a good phone, or the right gift for a 10-year-old

Enduring friendships that go beyond the professional realm
